Case No. 1700-V

Brief Title

Vacation of a portion of Hilton's Addition Plat and adjacent right-of-way generally located south of NE Parvin Rd, north of NE Lindenman Ave, and east of N Arlington Ave.

Details

L	Location:
٤	generally located north of NE Underground Drive, east of I-
4	135, south and west of the city limits
F	Reason for Legislation:

To vacate a portion of Hilton's Addition Plat

BRIEF PROJECT DESCRIPTION

Hilton's Addition was recorded in Clay County in 1888. The plat established 123 lots, six rights-of-way, and a cemetery. Currently, one of the lots is developed with a single family home and the rest of the lots are undeveloped. The cemetery is owned by Clay County. Rights-of-way exist for three of the six rights-of-way – it is unclear if the three other rights-of-way were never dedicated or were vacated. The portion of the plat to be vacated extends from platted Liberty Street on the east, Gulley Street on the west, Fine Street to the north and Willow Street to the south. The vacation of the plat excludes the existing house, cemetery and remainder of the plat to the west. The vacation a portion of this plat would vacate the rights-of-way and would remove the underlying lots leaving the land unplatted. The vacation of a plat will not affect traffic as the streets are not constructed and the land is undeveloped. The property owner received the required consents and utility comment sheets for the vacation of this plat. ATT has requested that any facilities that require relocation to be reimbursable by Hunt Midwest.
